Noida International Airport at Jewar will become logistics gateway of northern India, PM Modi said.

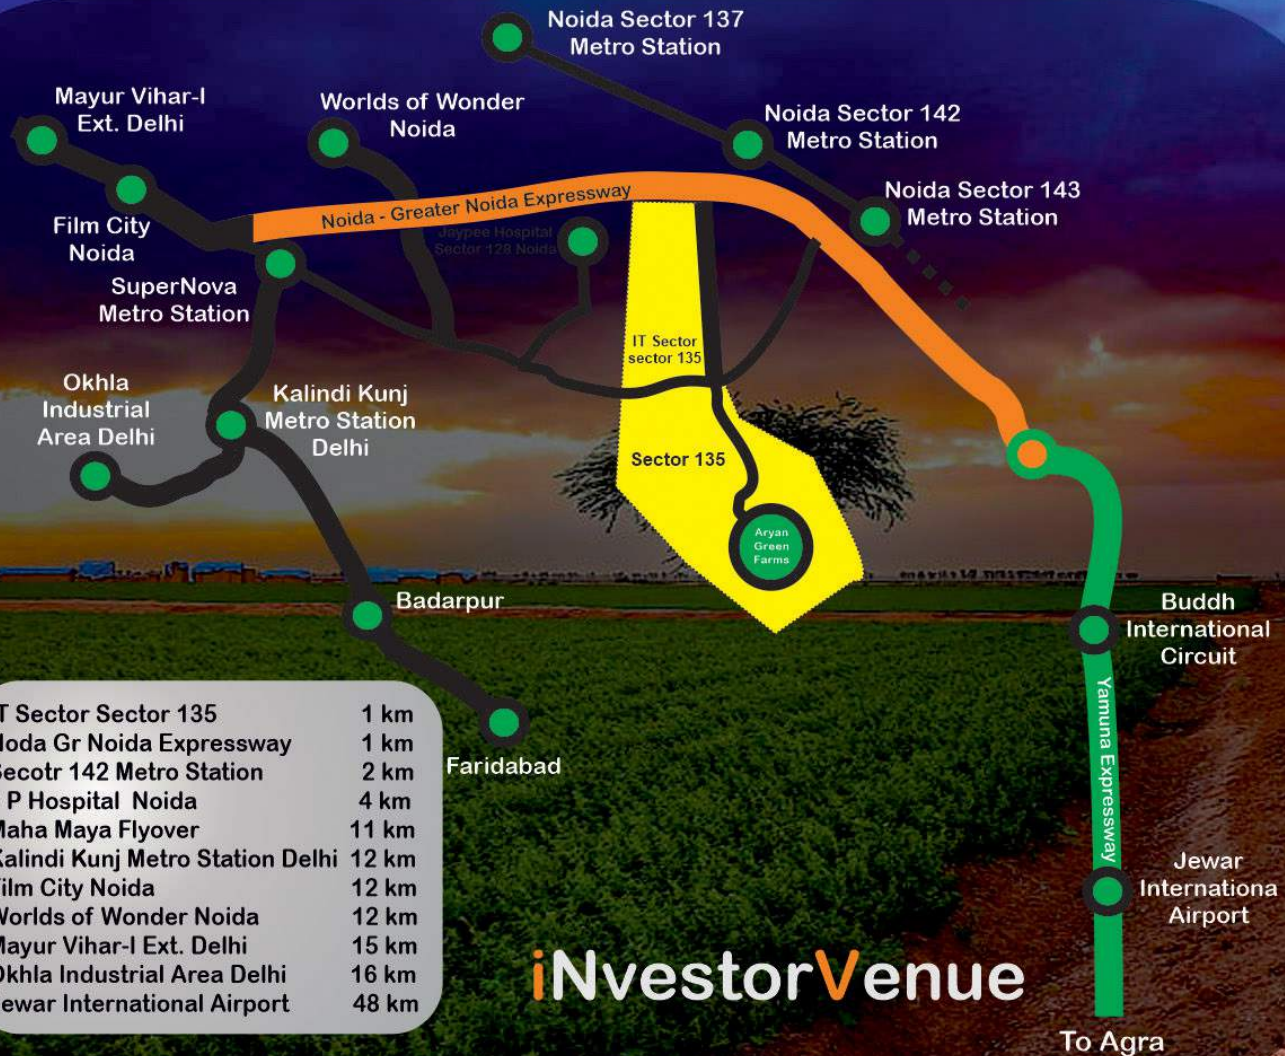

Union Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia, who accompanied Modi and UP CM Yogi Adityanath, said that the government expects investments of Rs 34,000 cr to come to Noida International Airport, with the first phase to be completed in 2024.

"It was PM Narendra Modi's direction that Asia's biggest airport is to be built in Uttar Pradesh," Scindia said at the ceremony.
